

May the Risen Christ Easter in you, today and always. Amen

We are called, each one of us, to be part of the glorious and joyful work that God undertakes for the sake of his whole creation: affirming, caring, loving, redeeming. For the Risen Christ who lives now, lives eternally, and he bids us share his resurrection life.

---Excerpt from Sermon preached by the Vicar, Canon Eric Woods

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

Let him easter in us,
Be a dayspring to the dimness in us,
Be a crimson-cressited east.

The Wreck of the Deutschland (stanza 35, lines 5-6)
by Gerard Manley Hopkins